DISCUSSED PRO AND CON

The Operations of a Burglar Near the North Carolina Line—The Wakefield Camp Meeting—A Pleasant Evening on the River—Additional Donations for the Firemen—Taxes on Dogs—Personal.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.) Suffolk, Va., Aug. 9.—From now till Monday Nansmond county will be the scene of marked political activity. With the Isle of Wight surprise still fresh in men's memories, its sensational features protruding in bass relief, both sides are now planning some final blows, the results of which will be felt Monday. That's when Nansmond's 26 Senatorial delegates will be named. The same meeting may also nominate a candidate for the lower house. The latter proposition will be left to the meeting's action. They may push it along to another day.

MR. SHANDS' CLAIM.
The Hon. William Shands, after a busy day's work, was asked to-night how many votes he was counting on at the convention.

"I can't tell exactly, but you can say I expect to have $2 before the thing is over. I haven't made any figures on first ballot results."

Evidently Mr. Shands feels confident of winning. So do his friends.

DEPENDS ON ISLE OF WIGHT.

The pivotal county now is Isle of Wight, and all interest centers on the result of the Executive Committee meeting Friday.

If two delegations be sent here from Isle of Wight county a contest before the Committee on Credentials would result. With Isle of Wight out the Shands people will control the convention and seat their delegation.

MAY APPEAL HIGHER.

It is possible that the Isle of Wight matter may be appealed to the State Committee for a decision as to whether Monday's proceedings were valid. The same committee may be called on to decide between Bradshaw and Jones if the latter be named at a primary.

HARD TO CATCH.

A slick white man, whose name is said to be Russell, is operating near the North Carolina line, and so far the authorities of neither State have been able to corner him.

Russell a few days ago burglarized a store in North Carolina and fled to Virginia. Then he broke into Mr.
Rawles' residence, near Whiteville, and stole some provisions. His headquarters in Virginia are supposed to be at the home of a woman whose reputation is none too good. When Mr.
Rawles' home was robbed Deputy Nor-fleet was telephoned to bring his blood hounds, but he couldn't go. The county police expect to get Russell soon if he stays in Virginia.

WAKEFIELD CAMP MEETING.

The camp meeting at Wakefield is said to be attracting much interest.
It is run by the International Holiness people, who own the tabernacle and several smaller buildings. Many visitors are entertained at private homes.

RIVER PARTY.

Last night's river party resulted in a pleasant evening. The following went: Mrs. G. A. Camp, of Washington, with R. J. Norfleet, Miss M.
Bruce, of Norfolk county, with H. M.
Carter; Miss Sallie Fagon, of Franklin, with S. E. Robertson; Miss Winnie Brothers with E. T. Cohoon; Miss Gertrude Langston with C. E. Ellis; Miss Katie Beaman with Joshua West.
The party returned at a late hour.

CASH FOR THE FIREMEN.

The following additional donations have been received to help the Phoenix Fire Company attend the Rannock competition: Virginia Manufacturing Company, per G. B. Walden, $10; G. B. Walden, personally, $5; H. R. Phillips, $2; J. C. Bell, $2.50; W. A. Carpenter, $1; Mrs. N. P. Odum, $50.

TAXES ON DOGS.

Commissioner of Revenue A. A. Riddick said this afternoon that to-morrow will be the last day for the payment of dog taxes. After that the dog killer will start out.

PERSONAL SAYINGS.

THE COCKADE CITY.

A BASELESS REPORT—DEATH IN-DUSTRIAL NOTES.

Petersburg, Va., August 9.—About 1 o'clock Tuesday it was reported that the health authorities of Richmond had issued orders to stop the steamer Pocahontas at City Point. Dr. C. V. Robinson, health officer of Petersburg, wired to Dr. W. E. Oppenheimer, health officer of Richmond, to learn if such was the case. He replied that the rumor was untrue. Shortly after that a rumor was abroad that yellow fever had broken out in Norfolk. A telegram was sent to Dr. C. E. Newhall, President Board of Health of Norfolk, asking if it was true. He replied that the rumor was absolutely false.

DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE LADY.

At her residence, in Dinwiddie county, Tuesday morning at 5:30, Mrs. Hannah G. Vaughan, quietly passed away after an illness of five weeks with typhoid fever. She was a daughter of the late John Flower, of Dinwiddie county, and was twice married. Her first husband was H. C. Carr, son of the late D.
G. Carr, and her last husband was Mr.
Edward Vaughan. She leaves four children—Mrs. J. R. Van Pelt, of Jordan Point; H. C. Carr, of Crewe, Va.; Chas.
D. Carr, of this city, and Annie E.
Vaughan, of Dinwiddie.

REBUILDING THE CRATE FAC-TORY.

The Southside Manufacturing Company is rebuilding the crate factory on South street, which was partly destroyed by fire some time ago. The new factory will be very much larger than the former one. It will be 53x162 feet and three stories high. Messrs. Orr & Holt have the contract for the brick work, and Mr. W. R. Turner for the brick work, and Mr. J. R. Johnson has the contract for the plumbing. The plans and specifications were drawn by Major Harrison Waite. Mr. J. C. Rowell is superintending the construction of the factory. The cost of the new building will be about $250,000.

STRIKERS' PLACES FILLED.

The places of the white pavers who have been leaving the track of the new street electric railway and who stopped work Monday on account of a reduction in their pay, have been filled by both white and colored pavers and the work is now going ahead.

ROANOKE.

DEATH OF COMMONWEALTHS AT-TORNEY OF THE COUNTY.

Roanoke, Va., August 9.—Mr. Henderson Lee, who was chosen Commonwealth's Attorney at the May election in Roanoke county, died at his home, in this place, yesterday afternoon after a short illness. Mr. Lee was about 59 years old, and was an active member of the Presbyterian church. He was a staunch democrat, and was one of the ablest and bravest lawyers of this section.
He is survived by his wife.

Paluski People Indignant.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Richmond, Va., Aug. 9.—A special from Dublin, Paluski county, says that the people there are highly indignant at the report sent out from Paluski that the jury in the Paluski case brought in a verdict of death and that they if they failed to do so they would be lynched. The jury, it is said, were carefully guarded and the Commonwealth's Attorney and all the jurors that can be found will enter an emphatic denial of the report.

New York Chicago Platform Democrats.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 9.—The meeting of the Chicago platform Democrats of New York was called here at 10:30 a.
m. to-day with fifty delegates present.
A fight was precipitated on the floor.
The anti-trust and anti-imperialism factions were on one side and the ultra-free silver faction on the other.

The substance of the resolutions in-troducted by the former declares that opposition to trusts and imperialism should be the paramount issues in the campaign of 1900. The election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people is also advocated.

GREAT CYCLE MEET.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP RACES AT MONTREAL.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Montreal, Aug. 9.—The world's cycle championship meet of the International Cyclists' Union, under the auspices of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association, opened to-day on the Queen's Park track.

The weather was fair. Ten thousand people saw the races.

There was only one world's championship event on the day's card, that at one mile, and it fell to Tom Summers-gill, of the Leeds Athletic Club, England, who won it in a bruising fight, from Earl Peabody, of Chicago, and John Caldwell, the Scotch champion. Of the other men from across the water,
